08-10 MARCH 2022

CELEBRATING A CENTURY IN POLICING

The Past | The Present | The Future

ANNE MARIE CAGNEY
Assistant Commissioner
Conference Co-Director

MARGARET NUGENT
Chief Superintendent
Conference Co-Director

Colleagues,

It is both our privilege and our pleasure, on behalf of An Garda Síochána, to warmly welcome you to the International Association of Women Police (IAWP) Regional Training Conference 2022 here in Dublin Castle.

Dublin Castle is a place with strong historical ties with policing in Ireland. It is where An Garda Síochána was first established and is now home to several units such as the Garda National Drugs and Organised Crime Bureau, the Garda National Roads Policing Bureau as well as the Garda Museum and Memorial Garden.

As this is our organisation's centenary year, hosting the IAWP conference is a particularly special honour and neither can it be forgotten that our conference also coincides with International Women's Day. What more suitable way for us to celebrate this than by coming together today in Ireland's capital city to help strengthen the advancement and leadership of women in policing internationally.

Over the next three days, our packed schedule will center on enhancing your knowledge and skills, with an overarching aim to provide you with a forum that facilitates open discussion about the challenges and best practices for women in policing.

You will hear from some of the most prominent in our field, have the opportunity to interact with expert speakers and get to know colleagues working in an array of countries around the world.

If you have any questions or require any assistance at all, please do not hesitate to ask.

Táimid bródúil agus ar bís fáilte a chur roimh go Baile Átha Claithe (We are proud and excited to welcome you to Dublin)
